

CANCELLATION OF CASUAL FRIDAY POLICY MEMORANDUM

To: All Employees
From: Sinclair Nzenwata, CEO
Date: August 28, 2024
Subject: Cancellation of Casual Friday Policy

Our company has prided itself on creating a positive work environment while maintaining a professional image, and your dedication and hard work has been important to our success. We appreciate the energy and creativity you bring to the office daily.

After consideration and review of our workplace policies, we made a decision regarding our Casual Friday policy.

Key Points

1. The Casual Friday policy is now discontinued.
2. Jeans and other casual wear are no longer permitted in the office.
3. Professional attire is required every workday, including Fridays.

Rationale:

We have observed that the casual dress code on Fridays has occasionally led to attire choices that don't align with our company's professional image. Despite previous communications about appropriate casual wear, we continue to face challenges in maintaining a consistent professional appearance. This decision was mainly based on customer complaints.

Alternative Charitable Initiatives:

We recognize that Casual Fridays was linked to charitable causes. To continue contributing to the community, we came up with the following alternatives.

1. Monthly volunteer day: Employees can take one paid day off per month to volunteer at a local charity.
2. Charity events: We will organize office-wide fundraising events for different causes and communities.

We understand that this news may be disappointing, but please be assured that this decision is not a reflection of your performance or the quality of your work but rather because of the company's image that could be tarnished by the casual Friday. Your skills and expertise remain highly valued within our organization.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to your direct supervisor, and thank you for your understanding and continued commitment to our company.

